Keep.

Keep to the right on the law streets.
Keep to the world thy friend's debts.
Keep off thy thoughts on present threats,
Keep off thy eyes from malice and baseness.
Keep to thy friends. "The house bright,
Keep to thy faith in God and right.
Keep to thy word, and stand.
Keep from the ways that bring no regret.
Keep thy heart pure and good thy will.
Keep off thy eyes from present fears.
Keep strong to thy memory.
Keep watchful over thy tongue and hand.
Keep free thy soul, by justice stand.
Keep to thy word, a sacred thing.
Keep from the snakes the temples bring.
Keep both well, and call a friend.
Keep to thy heart and soul.
Keep off all hate and malice.
Keep thy soul upright and strong.
Keep to thy right, and down the wrong.
Keep to thy word of wisdom's school.
Keep to thy right and by thy keep well.

Variety.

A "pet-up-job"—Bunker Hill Movement.
Trade—migration of soles—Sleep-walking.

"Slipped his grip" is California for dying.
The oldest Western writer—the evening sun.

For the present, say the Rochester Democrat, will correspondents please write on neither side
at the sheet?

If Caesar were to be as epigrammatic as Caesar,
his last dispatch would read: "I came, I saw,
I won."

A Troy Alderman remarked: "Mr. President, I have the vote, and I maintain—" Here an instant punctuated him in the mouth.

An Eastern paper intimates that Treasurer Spencer acquired his habit of profanity while learning to read his own writing.

A loathsome man, walking along the street,
regarded the moon with sovereign contempt.
"You needn't feel so proud," he said, "you are far only once a month, and I am every night."

A gentleman was examining an umbrella, and commented upon its fine quality. "Yes," he said,
"it has a parson present." He fancies everything he sees."

"And," added a third party, "is destined to seize everything he touches."

Probably no man ever so clably connected to have his teeth taken out as that Gilg Ball's man from whose stomach the surgeons removed a silver dental plate which he accidentally swallowed a year ago.

The London advertiser says that the subject of christening ships with bottles of wine is about to be taken up by the temperance people, who assert that the rolling of vessels at sea is mainly caused thereby.

The Waukegan Times recently spoke of a respectable citizen as one of the "main stay" of the place. The intelligent compositor sent it out that he was one of the main stays of the town.

The partial manner in which Tweed is treated at Blackwell's Island has at last called out earnest remonstrance, and caused the resignation of the Commissioner of Charities and Correction, who was the cause of it.
